

5 Parks Board Members Resign Over Pass Policy

Five members of the Twin Falls parks and recreation commission, including the newly elected president, submitted verbal resignations to protest the adoption of resolution No. 882, which was passed by a majority vote at a special meeting of the Twin Falls city commission at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday. The five members resigned because section five of the resolution, in essence, allows free use of the municipal golf course at the commissioners' discretion. Essentially, the resolution was the same as one adopted a year ago except there was no unrestricted access to the local course last season. Normally the resolution simply sets fees and schedules.

Stop Signs Approved on Milner Road

MILNER, April 22 — Burley highway district commissioners announced Tuesday afternoon they will install stop signs on the Milner road where two persons lost their lives in an auto collision Friday.
The east-west road will be made through highway with stop signs to be placed on all north-south roads leading into this main artery, T. W. Etherington, superintendent, told Mrs. Farnum Warr, chairman of a community committee spearheading the drive to obtain the stop signs.
The officials said they will also install adequate warning signals, probably white markings, on the roads leading to the through highway, Etherington, Sirle Powers and Irvine Dewey, highway commissioners, inspected the site Tuesday.
The effort to obtain stop signs at the intersection has been spearheaded by members of the Friendship circle and the WSP club and their husbands. The group spearheaded an unsuccessful attempt about a year and one-half ago, to have signs installed.

Ralph Harding Will Seek Reelection

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Rep. Ralph Harding, D. Idaho, who had said earlier he planned to seek reelection, announced formally Wednesday that he will bid for a third term as representative from Idaho's second district. He is expected to get the Democratic nomination without opposition. "I feel," Harding said in his formal announcement, "that I am obligated to those who have trusted me with this high office for two terms, during which time I have built up valuable seniority, to file for reelection."
Harding told newsmen in Boise several months ago he expected to seek another term. However, after controversy developed over statements he made regarding an official of the LDS church, of which he is a member, he said he might reassess his political future.
In his formal announcement he said he realized his voting record and some of his remarks in congress have resulted in controversy.
"Nevertheless," he said, "it is my judgment that any person in public life has the obligation to face issues squarely and not retreat from them even when it may appear to be politically expedient to do so."
"This I believe my constituents have wanted me to do. This I have tried to do. And this I will continue to do if reelected to the congress."

Blast in Viet Nam Kills Two U.S. Men

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, April 22 (AP)—Two U.S. men were killed and an American officer and an enlisted man Tuesday by a powerful jet-propelled rocket in a spectacularly detonated 40-pound bomb.
The Americans' names were withheld.
An American spokesman said three Vietnamese soldiers died with the Americans in the explosion on the main Vinh Long-Cantho highway, about 55 miles southeast of Saigon.
The deaths raised the total of Americans killed in action in Viet Nam this year to 33. Reported figures listed by the American command Wednesday are the complete total of Americans killed in Viet Nam as 129.

Bulletin

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—Nine Japanese governors with their spouses arrived in Boise today by plane under a cold, wet rain early Wednesday afternoon, receiving apologies from Gov. Robert E. Smylie for "this bad weather."
The governors and their spouses had wives were about 20 minutes late in arriving because of bad weather. About 200 Idahoans were on hand to greet them. They flew from Portland.
They will visit in the Boise area and leave for Salt Lake City on Friday.
RAIL PARLEY CONTINUES
WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Differences are reported narrowing today as negotiators bargained to-to close with less than 24 hours remaining before the agreed deadline for a national railroad strike.

Situp Strike

NASH, Okla., April 22 (AP)—For a month now four Ryukyu strikers have been perched atop a 131-foot smokestack in Nash, Okla., in a situp strike.
They went up the chimney of the U. S.-owned Okinawa Plywood company and say they won't come down until their demands are met. The company says it won't discuss the demands until they come down.
The strikers borrowed two 6-foot slabs of the company's plywood to make their perch comfortable. Food and water is hoisted up by the few other workers who joined the strike.
The smokestack sitters are demanding, among other things, pay increases and improved working conditions.

Minidoka Voters Defeat School Levy

RUPERT, April 22—A six-mill levy to increase revenue for maintenance and operation of the Minidoka county school district was turned down during an election Tuesday.
There were 663 votes cast in favor of the levy increase and 602 ballots were cast against the issue, which needed a two-thirds majority vote to pass.
According to a joint statement issued by the county school board, since the board had reduced the bond interest and redemption fund by two mills for next year, the proposed six-mill levy actually would have been only a four-mill increase. The levy, if passed, would have made a total levy of 36 mills for maintenance and operation.
The board felt this was badly needed since a shortage in last year's budget required a reduction in the teaching staff of 10 members, which left the other staff members overloaded. It was felt the levy increase would help remedy this situation and others.
The school system also had an increase of 150 students last year and expects the same increase this fall, the board stated.
Results of the election by polling places were: Hayburn, 77 yes and 142 no; Paul, 138 yes and 143 no; Lincoln school, Rupert, 145 yes and 150 no; Washington school, Rupert, 158 yes and 107 no; and Acquia, 67 yes and 60 no.

Heavy Frosts Hit Southwest Idaho

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—Heavy frosts late last week caused considerable damage to fruit buds in southwestern Idaho, particularly in Emmett valley, the U.S. agriculture department reported today.
Emmett valley was hit the hardest where apparent damage was greatest to cherries and red delicious apples. The low temperatures also injured some early planted sugar beets.
Planting activities neared completion in the early areas of the southwest, but only limited progress was made in southeastern and northern Idaho. Seeding operations got off to a slow start in most eastern areas.
Calving losses continued heavier than usual in the late areas of the state.
NEHRU PLANS TRIP
NEW DELHI, India, April 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said today he will attend the conference of British Commonwealth prime ministers in London in July. It will be the Indian leader's first trip abroad since he suffered a mild stroke in January.

Slaying of Stockman At Raft River Probed

BURLEY, April 22 — Three witnesses were questioned by sheriff's officers Wednesday morning in the fatal shooting, about 2 p.m. Tuesday, of Walter Toews, 48, well-known Hayburn and Raft River area stockman. Elmer Reeder, 59, Raft River, is being held in Cassia county jail as a suspect in the case. Sheriff H. O. Warrell said that Reeder admitted under questioning Tuesday night that he shot Mr. Toews in the chest with a .30-06 rifle which belonged to the dead man. An autopsy was held this morning, according to Dr. Leslie Fillmore, Cassia county coroner. He said he would meet this afternoon with Sheriff Warrell and Richard K. Smith, prosecuting attorney, to determine whether an inquest will be held. Investigation is continuing into the shooting before charges can be brought, the officers said.
The shooting took place five miles south of the Raft River store on a county road. The community of Raft River is located 30 miles east of Burley on Interstate highway 80.
Mr. Toews owned a large ranch in the Raft River area. Reeder lives in the area and at times has been employed by Mr. Toews as caretaker for his horses.
There are no telephones in the area and authorities were first notified of the shooting after Mr. Toews had been brought by two men in a pickup truck to Cassia Memorial hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival about 3 p.m. Tuesday.
It was reported hospital officials summoned Sheriff Warrell.
Sheriff Warrell said Mr. Toews apparently was shot only once and that the two men allegedly were standing 8 to 10 feet apart when the shooting occurred.
Mr. Toews was born Oct. 13, 1915, at Minidoka. On June 6, 1954, he married Adelle Williams, nee at Burley. He had ranches in the Raft River valley for the past 10 years.
He had operated ranches in Minidoka and Cassia counties for the past 34 years.
Survivors include his widow; one brother, Dr. Sam Toews, Redmond, Ore.; three sisters, Mrs. Esther Gordon, Redmond; Mrs. Alma Walker, Atlas, Ga.; and Mrs. Alma Toews, San Francisco; two children by a former marriage, Cheryl Matheson and Jay Toews, both Paul, and two grandchildren.

California Vote Work Is Suspended

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Justice William O. Douglas of the supreme court today ordered California to suspend preparations for its June 2 presidential primary election pending outcome of an appeal by Harold Stassen for a place on the ballot.
Counsel for Stassen appealed to the court Tuesday to review and overturn a California supreme court decision upholding the state secretary of state's refusal to certify Stassen's name for Republican primary ballot.
Stassen's counsel also asked for a stay pending full supreme court action on the appeal.

Envoy's Work To Form Laos Government

VIENTIANE, Laos, April 22 (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger and the envoys of France, Britain and Australia joined today in an attempt to restore the Laotian government overthrown by a right-wing military coup Sunday.
They set out for a meeting with King Savang Vatthana in the royal capital of Luang Prabang to seek his help in reestablishing the coalition of neutralists, pro-communists and right-wing elements that had governed Laos since 1962.
The status of neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma, who has the backing of the West and the king, remained unclear.
The military junta headed by Gen. Kouprasith Abhay kept Souvanna under armed guard, but Tuesday night began referring to him as the nation's premier instead of its deposed premier.
Kouprasith and his chief aide, police chief Gen. Sihou Lamphouthacoul, apparently hope to end the long ineffective coalition and set up a government excluding the pro-communist Pathet Lao.
Since the government was formed, the Pathet Lao have refused to cooperate most of the time and their forces have clashed repeatedly with right-wing and neutralist troops.
But the West fears that any attempt to push out the Pathet Lao could bring full-scale civil war, perhaps involving support for the pro-communists from neighboring North Viet Nam and Red China.

Riots Subside

SEOUL, South Korea, April 22 (AP)—Student demonstrations subsided today after five days of bloody clashes. The government promised stern punishment of future offenders.
Riots Tuesday left nearly 100 persons injured. Police used tear gas and clubs to disperse about 2,000 college students, who threw rocks at officers and tried to force their way through police barricades around government buildings.

Police and Rights Groups Clash at N.Y. Fair Opening

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Clashes between civil rights demonstrators and police marked the rainswept opening today of the New York World's Fair. An intended stall-in to block highway traffic to the fair sputtered out, but picketing inside and outside the fairgrounds, arrests, disturbances and scattered violence were constant. James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, was arrested outside the New York pavilion shortly before President Johnson arrived by helicopter to dedicate the fair. Police said Farmer blocked the pavilion entrance.

Unfettered Criticism Nourishes Freedom

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—President Johnson, speaking over outcries of racial demonstrators at the opening of the New York World's Fair, said today that "free and unhindered criticism of men and ideas" is the "vital nourishment of freedom." Johnson opened the fair with a prediction that peace is possible in this generation—earlier than might be expected. Then he opened the huge United States exhibition building, where representatives of the Congress of Racial Equality were waving placards and chanting "Freedom! Freedom!"

Wife Drives Over Spouse, Held in Jail

KIMBERLY, April 22—Dewain Madden, Kimberly, was listed in fair condition at Magic Valley Memorial hospital with injuries received when he was struck by a car driven by his wife Tuesday night, five miles south and two miles east of here on a county road.
His wife was being held in county jail pending investigation on charges of assault with a deadly weapon, namely a vehicle. Sheriff James H. Benham said Wednesday Mrs. Madden has not been formerly charged with anything, but the department will confer with the prosecuting attorney later in the afternoon to decide on further action.
Madden was rushed to the hospital by ambulance and a hospital spokesman reported his pelvis was broken on both sides.

Death Takes Jay Merrill, Former Solon

BURLEY, April 22 — Jay McMann Merrill, 60, former Twin Falls county legislator and civic leader, died Tuesday at his home of a two-month illness.
Mr. Merrill moved to Twin Falls in 1939 and was district manager for the Farmers Insurance group. Two years ago he moved to Burley, where he was a consultant for the employment security office.
He was born Oct. 22, 1903, at Boise. On June 6, 1931, he married Kathryn M. Blosser at Ontario, Ore. Their marriage later was solemnized in the LDS temple in Salt Lake City.
Mr. Merrill was graduated from the Pocatello high school in 1920 and from the University of Utah with a B.A. degree in 1924. He was a salesman for the Idaho Power company from 1929 to 1939 in Pocatello, Nampa and Boise.
Mr. Merrill was active in the LDS church, serving as bishop's counselor for the first and third wards in Twin Falls from 1946 until 1954. He was high councilman for the Twin Falls stake in 1954 and was state president's counselor from 1954 to 1960.
He served as president of the Twin Falls Lions club in 1947-48 and district governor in 1953-54. Mr. Merrill was Lions club international counselor.
He was president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce in 1945 and was presented the outstanding citizenship award in Twin Falls Jan. 17, 1945.
For six years, from 1949 to 1955, he served as Twin Falls county representative to the state legislature.
Survivors include his widow; See JAY MERRILL, P. 2, Col. 7

Tie, Board Fills Vacancy

GOODING, April 22 — The Gooding school board will declare a vacancy in zone four and appoint a new trustee, it was announced today after a trustee election Tuesday resulted in a tie between J. W. Bodenhofer and Harold Henderson.
Bodenhofer and Henderson, a write-in candidate, each received six votes and Cecil Hobday, Gooding city attorney, said the law provides that in the case of a tie the existing board declares a vacancy and appoints someone to complete the unexpired term.
John Varin, who was appointed earlier to fill the unexpired term of Milton Hill, who resigned, said the board will hold the election Tuesday following the election Tuesday. The post will be filled at an election next year.
In zone five, Richard Strickland defeated John Faulkner, 41-15.

Buhl Woman Hurt as Bridge Collapses Over Deep Creek

BUHL, April 22—Mrs. Fred Ebberts, 51, route 4, Buhl, is being treated at Magic Valley Memorial hospital for injuries received when her car plunged into Deep creek, three and three-fourths miles west of Buhl, after the bridge on the gravelled county road broke about 3 p.m. Tuesday.
Officers reported Mrs. Ebberts was driving a 1960 Ford across an old wooden bridge which spanned the creek when the structure collapsed.
The bridge is located one-quarter of a mile west of the Black Bear service station and the road is gravelled and well used, officials said. Recent traffic from trucks hauling heavy loads of gravel was thought to be the cause of the collapse.
The right side and front end of the car were submerged in the water, which was described as "too deep to wade in." Mrs. Ebberts apparently was knocked unconscious by the fall.
When she regained consciousness she managed to crawl out of the window on the side of the car which was out of the water and climbed onto the remains of the bridge. She walked about a quarter of a mile to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woodruff, who called her husband and Buhl police.
Mrs. Ebberts first was treated by a local physician and then was taken to the hospital by her husband. It was reported she has cracked ribs and bruises.
Deputy Sheriff Curtis Pryor estimated damage to the car at $500. Traffic is being detoured around the bridge today, he added.

Auditorium Board Holds First Meet

The new board of directors of the Twin Falls Civic Auditorium association, Inc., met Tuesday noon at the Rowson hotel for a no-host luncheon, its first meeting since election last Friday. The board voted to elect officers during the next meeting slated for 7 a.m. Thursday at the auditorium-convention center office, 135 Main avenue east.
Outgoing president Henry Wills welcomed all members to the board, and, upon motion of the board of directors, appointed a three-member nominating committee to select a slate of new officers for presentation to the board at the next meeting. Those appointed are William Grange, Carl W. Berg and Claude Mendola.
Terms of office, so the 15-member board will be divided, with one-third coming up for election each year, was decided by a drawing.
One-year directors are John B. Robertson, H. O. Lauterbach, Mrs. Grace Patrick, William Grange and Ted Roth; two-year directors are Dr. Harry Brumback, Jr., Henry Wills, U. N. Terry, Mrs. Lucille Kelly and James Koutnik and three-year directors are David Mead, Carl W. Berg, Charles Allen, Claude Mendola and Paul Bull.
All except two board members and outgoing officers were present. They were Bull, who was in Boise on business, and Lauterbach, who was in Minnesota attending the funeral of his brother.
Chairman Wills remarked, "With attendance such as this, the board cannot help but get off to a good start."
Various committees needed were pointed out by outgoing vice president Dr. Harry Brumback.
A sincere "thank you" was entered in the minutes to accountants Olen Seamons, LeGrande Nelson and William Evans, who worked until 3 a.m. Saturday to audit the ballot which elected the new board.

Tax Reform Meeting to Be Held Here

Four guest speakers will give a talk on Idaho tax structure at a noon luncheon to be held Tuesday at the Twin Falls American Legion hall, announces William Grange, manager of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

The four speakers will be Tommy Terrel, who has served in the state house of representatives for five consecutive years; Hugh Wilson, executive secretary of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce; Max Yost, executive vice president of the associate tax payers, and Grange.

The chain of meetings started last November at Blackfoot he said. The group hopes to cover 36 or 37 of the 44 counties in Idaho by next July.

The present schedule includes a noon luncheon Tuesday in the Twin Falls American Legion hall for Twin Falls and Jerome counties; Tuesday night at Gooding for Gooding and Camas counties; Thursday noon in Mountain Home for Blaine and the east side of Owyhee counties, and Thursday night in Nampa for Cwyen and the west side of Owyhee counties.

The group started two years ago. Grange reported funds have been raised and 50,000 booklets have been published dealing with the subject of the need for tax reform.

Grange said the group is composed of both Democrats and Republicans who are concerned about the tax structure of Idaho. He added it has been estimated that the next general fund budget will require $120,000,000 for 1965-67. The budget enacted by the 1963-1965 session of the legislature was 101.9 million dollars, so this would mean an 18 million dollar increase in revenue.

It is estimated that the present

DISCUSSING PLANS for the tax reform talks to be presented in Twin Falls Tuesday are William Grange, left, who will be one of the speakers, and former Idaho Sen. Carl Irwin, who is one of the officers of the tax reform committee. The committee will try to present talks for 37 of the 44 counties in Idaho by next July. (Times-News photo)

China Says U. S. Tries to Exclude Laos Communists

TOKYO, April 22 (AP) — Red China charged Wednesday that the United States is seeking to set up a government in Laos which would completely exclude the communist Pathet Lao. The Laotian coalition was composed of neutralist, right-wing and Pathet Lao factions. "U. S. imperialism," Peking said, "is now seeking to take advantage of the situation in which Prince Souvanna Phouma is held under duress, to set up a government which would completely exclude the Pathet Lao and while appearing to be composed of the other two factions, would, in fact, be controlled by the rightist Savannakhet group."

Prevention Needed

The practice of waiting until someone is killed to demand stop signs at dangerous intersections is just like locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen. It's disturbing; events should never happen in that order, but they do. A continuing campaign of highway safety aimed at preventing these shattering intersection collisions should be high on the list of "musts."

There is no thought of suggesting stop signs for all intersections in the country. But all officials involved should be checking at regular intervals to eliminate as many highway hazards as possible. An intersection that's perfectly safe in February with good vision of all approaches might be a death trap in August when high weeds block vision. Likewise, a stop sign that's effective in winter could be obscured by tree foliage or high-growing weeds in summer. That's just one of the reasons for making regular checks of traffic on all roads.

The public employees and officials who should be vitally concerned with this safety program include sheriffs and their deputies and all highway district board members and officials. There are others—notably state police and state highway department personnel—to check danger points on highways. It's the rural roads, the farm-to-market roads that must be checked periodically for hazards.

The current example is Milner road where two persons were killed in a shattering collision last week. Significantly, residents of the area were well aware of the potential danger. And more than a year prior to the two deaths, residents were asking installation of stop signs. Two highway district officials concurred on the necessity for traffic control, yet nothing was done. There's no point now in asking why because both of the officials have died and too much time has passed.

It's clear that such requests for stop signs by those who are familiar with the danger should be granted priority investigation.

Rational persons certainly do not advocate a complete blockade of traffic by a thorough net of stop signs. Besides impeding traffic, such widespread use of stop signs would result in wholesale disregard of them. However, the public is entitled to the protection of signs at intersections where vision is obscured or where a special hazard exists. Particularly is such protection indicated when there has been a specific request.

Stop signs are an additional safeguard. They cannot replace defensive driving so essential to survival in today's highway traffic. There is no excuse for a driver reaching a blind intersection at a high rate of speed or driving blithely into a pattern of traffic that cannot be observed beforehand. Still, a warning sign could save the life of a preoccupied driver or one who wasn't alert.

It's high time to start locking a few stabiles before the horses are stolen.

WARNING SIGNALS

Far from helping their own cause, integrationists have reached the point now where they may be hurting themselves. Another summer of violence across the U.S. seems to be in the offing and no one can condone it.

The warning signals are being for anyone who wants to observe. Perhaps the best is the election showing being made by Alabama's Gov. George Wallace. Those votes he's pulling in are votes for segregation and it's quite significant the elections are being held in northern states with a relatively small percentage of Negro population.

It's one thing for integrationists to push their cause in the Deep South in the face of open repression and quite another to spark violence in other regions. There is no substitute for dignity and quietness in calling attention to prejudice.

Most ill-advised of all are the extensive demonstrations that will interfere with great numbers of persons and inconvenience many citizens. Such is the "stall-in" planned for the opening of the New York World's Fair. Civil rights organizers figured it was a fine way to call attention to their cause, particularly with the exceedingly heavy traffic that could be expected on the opening day of the fair.

Far from furthering the civil rights cause, the "stall-in" could do nothing but boomerang. Those caught in a giant traffic jam aren't going to feel kindly toward the organizers or their cause.

If the integrationists don't recognize the danger signals and re-evaluate their position, there can be only more trouble and confusion.

WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON, April 22—Journalistic pundits haggle over the post-humous release of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's "victory plan" in the Korean war. MacArthur's defeat in North Korea is a footnote of history which explains, at least in part, MacArthur's defeat in North Korea. That footnote states bluntly that until the Chinese Reds tell on him like a ton of bricks, MacArthur stubbornly refused to believe reports of the central intelligence agency that the Reds probably would intervene in force. In retrospect, it almost seems as if MacArthur didn't want to believe these reports; therefore he gave them his deaf ear.

MYSTERY—Several weeks before MacArthur sent his United Nations troops across the 38th parallel dividing South and North Korea, the CIA had warned President Truman the Chinese Reds would view the move with "considerable seriousness." Our spy agency reported movements of Chinese Red troops along the Manchurian-Korean border in numbers large enough to give them the "capacity" to intervene. At hearings before the senate armed services committee in May, 1951, MacArthur testified the CIA had reported the Red Chinese would not intervene. Truman said he had seen no such report. And Gen. Omar Bradley, then chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, said MacArthur had been informed of the movements on the Manchurian border. Earlier, Truman and MacArthur had met at Wake Island for a chat, about which Truman wrote in his memoirs: "The general assured me that victory was won in Korea. He also informed me that the Chinese Communists would not attack." According to Truman—whose memory was supported by the notes of a stenographer—MacArthur further declared that "if the Chinese tried to go down to Pyongyang, there would be the greatest slaughter..." of Chinese troops.

CHINESE AID CONFIRMED—Headquarters of MacArthur's X corps provided the first official report of Chinese intervention. Prisoners captured on Oct. 28, 1950, were identified as Chinese and told interrogators they were members of organized units which had crossed the Korean border on Oct. 16. This was the day after MacArthur had assured Truman the Chinese would not enter the war.

Yet, several days later, MacArthur pleaded for and received permission to bomb the bridges over the Yalu river because "the general material in large force are pouring across all bridges of the Yalu from Manchuria." Next day, the general told Washington he had been confirmed in his belief that this was not a full scale intervention.

ATTACKS, THROWN BACK—By mid-November, the CIA had prepared a national intelligence summary which would have given pause to most generals. It stated the Chinese Reds would "at a minimum" increase their operations in Korea and subject U.N. forces to "prolonged attrition." MacArthur forthwith launched his eighth army on a major attack he described as a "general offensive..." to end the war.

What actually happened is history. Four days after the attack was launched, the eighth army found itself facing a vastly superior force of Chinese troops, estimated at 200,000 strong, had forced evacuation of 100,000 U.N. troops and 91,000 Koreans at Hungnam. Subsequently, the Chinese pushed across the 38th parallel and drove 70 miles into South Korea before U.N. reinforcements stopped their drive and eventually, on April 3, 1951, nudged the Chinese back into North Korea.

GOVERNORS' DILEMMA
The case of John Lyle Wilson, known locally as James Ostrander, is one of those which appear now and again to wrench the consciences of public officials sworn to uphold the law and administer it impartially.

After serving three years of a 30-year sentence for second degree murder in Washington, Wilson came here and changed his name, found a job, married and fathered a child, became active in the community, was a good citizen, neighbor and friend. But now his past has come to light, and Washington's Gov. Albert D. Rosellini, as the law says he should, has asked Oregon to return the fugitive.

Oregon's Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, in view of the extenuating circumstances, asked Rosellini to permit Wilson to remain here, under supervision of the Oregon state board of parole and probation. Rosellini refused, leaving Hatfield in an awkward situation. If he signs the extradition forms and sends Wilson back to face Washington justice, he will face criticism from Wilson's many friends and supporters who are pointing out, with strong logic, that it would be morally wrong to put him back behind bars. After all, the purpose of imprisonment is said to be rehabilitation, and Wilson already has been rehabilitated.

But if Hatfield refuses, he will be putting a strain on interstate relationships. To be sure, Rosellini not long ago refused to send a Negro under a death sentence back to Georgia, but in that case he said he had "serious doubts as to the guilt..." The governor of Oregon hardly can insult the state of Washington by questioning the adequacy of the court proceedings which sent Wilson to Walla Walla.

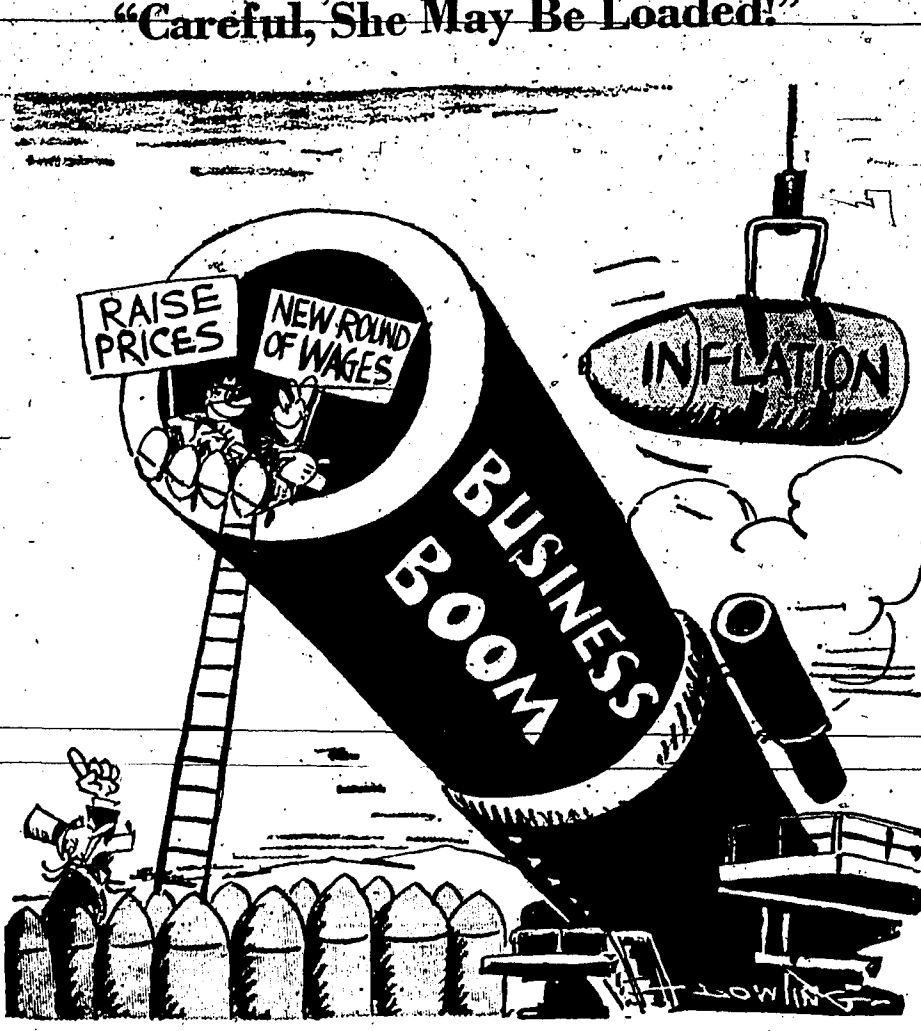

Governor Rosellini no doubt pondered the political aspects of the case as well as the legal on which he based his decision. He had also to think about the possible effect on other Walla Walla inmates who would note how one of their number obtained a parole by the break-out method. It is now Governor Hatfield's move, and we do not envy our governors as they grapple with such problems as these. — The Oregonian

IDAHO'S TAX REBUFF
Idaho has experienced another dramatic rebuff to its dilapidated, discriminatory tax structure. The Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company, one of the nation's titan manufacturing concerns, has decided not to locate a plant in Idaho. The company had been earnestly surveying an Idaho site for months.

And why? Because Idaho's tax structure is too much of an attrition on the company's personnel. The company, in announcing it is withdrawing from its Idaho site study, mentioned the income tax as particularly painful.

Idaho's 10 per cent state income tax rate is indeed high. But more than that, Idaho's property tax is discriminatory. The local assessment rates over the state vary widely, but business and farms generally have a heavy assessment burden. A new business seeking an Idaho location exposes itself to a hodgepodge of property assessment rates. And then there's the inventory tax, that great business neutralizer.

Idaho's tax structure, the state learned again this week, continues to be the biggest impediment to a healthy business climate in the state. Raw resource has to be an overpowering influence to invite an industry to the state now, despite the state's obvious handicaps. Idaho had an opportunity 10 years ago to capitalize on an interim tax study which programmed a workable tax reform. It got another chance at one during the past session and passed it by. The bill will break in 1965.—Idaho Falls Post-Register

HAD NO SMILES, TOO
Dear Pot Shots:
The modern housewife doesn't know what work is, will say to "A. Moderne," Twin Falls. We had no electricity to sharpen knives, we done it with muscle. Filled the lamps with oil and washed chimneys, an every-day job; no buttons to push.

There were no can openers, not even hand run. We used the sharp butcher knife, jabber into can, cut through to opposite side, then another cut through, making like pie cut in four pieces, then these edges were bent back to open can. Most of the time the can got tipped over and spilled; try it and see.

There were no instant biscuits; we made them ourself and cut the wood to heat the oven; no button for electricity.

Yes, these modern women are sure worked to death. Many don't know what pumps and washboards are. Yes, they are really worked hard.

Dear Pots:
I like your little puns about the President and his wife, Lady Bird, about like medicine. It's good for you but bitter to your taste at times.

I have a recipe that is a favorite of mine on back of a Bisquick box. Big Deal!

Dear Pots:
Whoever puts fertilizer on a lawn should be responsible for mowing that lawn until mid-summer, at least.

It's not exactly fun to chase a lawnmower around when the grass is growing so fast and thick it's hard to keep up with. And then some well-meaning person always complicates things with fertilizer!

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

Washington News

BY LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
The house of representatives laid a new one billion dollar taxpayer on the humpbacked U.S. taxpayer last week and there has been heard, so far, no peoples' shout of protest.

If that is government economy, it is of a new type altogether. What the house did was pass with-out record vote the 1965 fiscal year appropriations for the departments of labor and of health, education and welfare (HEW). The bill provided: For labor, $5.9 million; for HEW 6.2 billion. For the labor department, that is up 193.4 million over what is budgeted to be spent in the current 1964 fiscal year. HEW for fiscal '65 is up $33 million above fiscal '64. In that HEW bulge are large sums of money sought from congress in the form of requests for supplemental appropriations. This means they are in addition to the 1964 appropriations, the charge would have been against the current fiscal year, thereby making fiscal 1965 look proportionately better. That is a form of what sometimes is called South American bookkeeping, a baffling device as confusing as the old carny game of guessing where the pitcher hid the ball.

But congress did not honor the supplemental requests as such. Instead, they were added to President Johnson's estimate of HEW's fiscal 1965 needs, the whole adding up to 6.2 billion. That sum represented a 500 million reduction from the 6.7 billion which Johnson had requested in the form of 1965 funds plus 1964 supplementals.

Perhaps the taxpayers don't care about this 1.1 billion hike because they really don't have to pay it. They know that President Johnson will borrow the money to pay government bills just as Presidents Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy did before him. Pretty soft!

Appropriations subcommittee Chairman John E. Fogarty, D. R. I., called the HEW program the most conservative or worst proposal since Mrs. Oveta Hobby, Houston, Tex., was HEW secretary in the Eisenhower administration. Rep. H. R. Charley Gross, R. Ia., who seeks always to impose economy on the house had at Fogarty in a back and forth that went like this:
Gross: "This bill calls for spending of nearly 7 billion dollars. It is 1.1 billion above spending for the same purposes as last year."
Fogarty: "My opinion is that it is one of the most conservative budgets submitted to the congress."
Gross: "We may reasonably expect that 200 to 400 million more will be needed to finance the Hill-Burton hospital act. If the department of poverty is established, that will come under the department of HEW."
Fogarty: "I am not sure where that is going. That would involve approximately another billion dollars, I have heard."
Gross: "I note that the distinguished gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. Mills), chairman of the ways and means committee, is on the house floor. When the 11.5 billion tax reduction was before the house he told us that we would take one or two roads—the road toward economy if we would have tax reduction, or we would run the risk of doing grave damage to the finances and economy of the country if we took the spending road. This bill as it now stands calls for 1.1 billion above the spending for last year. I wonder which road we will be taking today if we vote for it."

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR
In the spring of 1960 Joseph P. Kennedy told Olaf Boothe that the only Republican John F. Kennedy feared was Nelson A. Rockefeller. Looks to the press followed the same line.

After the election, in a forgetful moment, the President's father told Mrs. Luce that the Democrats only fear had been confirmed. The Republicans had nominated Richard M. Nixon. You would hardly expect the Yale football team to let the Harvard players call his signals, yet for many years Democratic politicians and members of the press have persistently, if not systematically, signified the Republicans who to nominate. And—increasingly—the GOP has paid some attention.

In each convention year Democrats engulf the Republican party with oceans of sympathy and warn it of sure defeat if it chooses the wrong man.

In 1940 Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey were both fully fitted and prepared to make the issues against the administration. And both were anathema to the Democrats. Democratic solicitude for the Republican party—along the lines that neither could win—became almost frantic. It helped open the way for the nomination of Wendell Willkie who, in fact, had hitherto been a Democrat.

In 1952 President Truman was leaving the White House. Donkey party prospects were as black as a crow in a coal mine. Many Democratic leaders, including James Roosevelt, shouted appeals for General Eisenhower to run for president on the Democratic ticket. But when the NATO commander punctured their dreams a whole chorus of Democratic lusties bemoaned the idea that a soldier enter politics at all. Some even suggested that nominating a military leader would be fatal to the Republican party. The nomination was so fatal to the Republicans that the Democrats lost the White House for the first time in 20 years.

By 1960 Vice President Nixon (always anathema to Democrats) had served eight years under a nonpolitical President and now this life-long carrier of the party flag was "Mr. Republican."

Again, the prospect of Nixon's nomination brought the same tearful warnings from the Democrats; forgetting, perhaps that they were urging the Republican party to renounce its own vice president. Their warning advice was to nominate anybody but Nixon. "Nixon can't win." The amazing skill of this prediction was proved when Nixon failed to win by more than 10 per cent.

Democratic praise for Governor Rockefeller supplied much of the oomph behind Rockefeller's abortive "stop Nixon" try. Similar Democratic cheers were also a factor in Harold Stassen's try, which was largely ridiculous. Stassen didn't have enough supporters to fill a telephone booth.

It's become increasingly hard for the Democrats to save the face. By 1962 Sen. Barry Goldwater emerged. He utterly failed to qualify as a darling of the Democrats. And the universal Democratic advice to Republicans was to nominate anybody but Goldwater.

Peasants of Democratic faith again went to Governor Rockefeller. This was on a "stop Goldwater" basis. Then, as Rockefeller faltered again in national acceptance, Democratic pressure moved in heavily behind Republican mentions of Gov. William W. Scrantom.

Scrantom's reluctance to campaign was the next fly in the ointment. But suddenly the skies were cleared by Henry Cabot Lodge's strong New Hampshire write-in. Democratic advice switched abruptly to a direct assist from Goldwater's defeat in the same primary.

Had Goldwater won there, apparently would have been slight difference. It's noticeable how Goldwater's subsequent Illinois victory was downgraded in Democratic quarters, as presumably it will be downgraded if he wins in California. There are few Democrats around who are not advising the Republicans privately and in print to run anybody but Goldwater or Nixon.

This may be good or bad advice, or anything you want to call it, but a phenomenon arises: The public "image" of many a Republican hopeful is often shaped more by Democratic voices than by the voices of the Republicans.

Numbers of Republicans oppose both Goldwater and Nixon, but the greatest opposition is from Democrats who are going to vote for the Democratic ticket, as usual, no matter who the Republican nominee.

sort were repairs of heart valves damaged by rheumatic fever or other diseases. It soon became apparent, however, that some valves were damaged beyond repair. Dr. Albert Starr of the University of Oregon with the help of M. L. Edwards, a retired steelworker, has devised an artificial heart valve which replaces these badly diseased valves. Unlike the normal heart valve, the artificial replacement is a ball valve. The several materials used are all chemically inert to the human body and thus cannot corrode. The ball, which is made of silicon elastic, is enclosed in a shiny cage made of Vitallium alloy and attached to the heart by a sleeve or ring of knitted Teflon.

Another group of surgeons, working in Boston, has found that a special plastic glue can be used to seal surgical incisions in blood vessels. When applied to an incision this glue sets in two minutes. This adhesive is not only holds, but it can stretch with the pulsation of the vessel. This is a great advantage over the unyielding metal and fiber sutures formerly used.

duplicate game in which most North players chose to respond three no-trump to their partner's diamond opening. In every instance, South passed and North proceeded to take his 12 top tricks.
One north player took a far different view of the hand. He saw the extra trick possibilities inherent in his four-card support for South's diamond suit and respended one spade.

When South rebid to two diamonds, North was off and running. He assumed that South had a six-card diamond suit and went right into a Blackwood routine.

When South showed three hearts and no kings, North decided that the diamond grand slam would be cold provided that South had the expected six-card diamond suit and at least three clubs and that some nasty opponent did not hold all missing diamonds. North bid seven diamonds and South wrapped it up.

This North was really entrepating. He would have gathered in the same top score for the more conservative bid of six diamonds. On the other hand, South seems to me that all other South players were a trifle timid. Perhaps, at the combination of a realized diamond suit and three six-card hearts, South's grand slam was worth some further exploration. His partner jumped right in with three no-trump.

Cynics Scored for Opposing Bible Reading

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—A leader in the fight against the supreme court's school prayer decision said today "a fraternity of cynics" seeks to sever all national ties to religion.

Rep. Frank J. Becker, R., N. Y., sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment that would permit prayers and Bible reading in public schools, urged its speedy adoption by congress.

Becker was the first witness at house judiciary committee hearings which he has been demanding ever since the June, 1963, court decision outlawing of official school prayers.

At least 60 members of congress and about 75 church and public witnesses are expected to testify at the hearings, which probably will last more than a month.

Becker, who has traveled over the country urging support for his proposed amendment, and who helped stir up one of the most massive mail campaigns in its favor ever to hit Capitol Hill, said the issue raised is the most important congress can face.

"The welfare and the entire future of our beloved America depend upon how we handle the most dynamic tradition in our national life—dependence upon Almighty God," he said in a prepared statement.

Those who pressed the issue that was finally resolved by the

Flu Bug

SALT LAKE CITY, April 22 (AP)—A University of Utah college of medicine professor estimates that an epidemic of intestinal flu has affected 10,000 persons in the Salt Lake area.

Dr. Paul D. Hoeprich said there have been 98 victims isolated so far. He thinks that figure represents about one per cent of the total cases.

Hoeprich said the virus strain, called Salmonella, is unusual in this area. He said it is transmitted by food and person-to-person contacts.

Fire Razes Farm Home Near Wendell

WENDELL, April 22 — The five-room farm house and fur-nishings of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hopper were destroyed by fire of unknown origin Tuesday after-noon.

Wendell firemen were called to the home five miles east and one mile south of Wendell about 2:30 a.m., according to Fire Chief E. E. Pear. He said the blaze was discovered by Hopper who had stopped work to go into the house for a drink of water. As he opened the door, the house seemed to "explode," Hop-per reported. His wife, who is employed at the Jerome business office of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph com-pany, learned of the fire when the location of the fire was re-ported over the telephone. There was no one in the house at the time the fire broke out. The couple's two children were at school. Very little of the con-tents of the house was saved, and the insurance adjuster reported the house and furnishings a total loss. Firemen patrolled the blaze until 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Parking Fine Trick Gets Man Stern Court Talk

ROCHESTER, Minn., April 22 (AP)—A Minnesota man who tried to pay a parking fine with a bizarre collection of money or-ders, bottle caps, trading stamps and other gimmicks wound up with a stern lecture and legal rap on the knuckles.

"Under present educational standards, you wouldn't qualify for kindergarten," snapped Municipal Judge William S. La-Plante on Tuesday to Clinton E. Dahlberg of Howard Lake. Dahlberg owed a $5 fine for over-time parking in Rochester. He mailed in a payment includ-ing a 14-cent bank money order, a 12-cent postal money order, $1.14 in coins, 55 cents in postage stamps, 3 1/2 premium coupons re-deemable at a grocery store for 45 cents in kitchen ware, 13 trad-ing stamps, three beer, bottle caps, eight buttons, five wash-ers and three screws. Dahlberg not only forked over the $5 but also was ordered to apologize to the court and was given a 30-day suspended sen-tence for contempt.

Utilities Asked to Cut Rates

Idaho Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker said today that the public utilities commission ought to order utilities operating in Idaho to reduce their service rates.

Walker commented on a pro-posal by the PUC that the uti-lities pass on savings resulting from a two per cent tax reduc-tion in the form of improved service.

The PUC made the suggestion in a letter asking the utilities to outline ways they might pass on the savings to their patrons.

"The Idaho public utilities commission," said Walker, "has again demonstrated a fantastic lack of interest in the public with their proposal that Idaho's utilities figure out a way to keep the two per cent tax saving."

"They suggest that the amount is too small to make any difference to the public but only last year the Idaho Power com-pany was granted a 7 per cent increase which we have all felt heavily every month. Two per-cent isn't a great deal but it would help the consumer."

"The PUC has totally forgot-ten their role, which is to pro-tect the public and not the cor-poration."

Walker suggested that the tax savings be passed on to industry through lower industrial rates or to the farmers through a de-crease in pumping rates.

"We would all benefit to some extent that way by aiding our economy instead of providing a huge windfall to the people who run and own the utilities."

"The PUC just can't get it through their heads that these privileged few are not the pub-lic."

The PUC's letter went to the Mountain States Telephone com-pany, Idaho Power company, Pacific Northwest Bell, General Telephone and Washington Water Power company.

Comet...World's 100,000-Mile Durability Champion

At Daytona, a team of four specially equipped '64 Comets each traveled day and night 100,000 miles at over 105 miles per hour — an unequalled feat of stamina and durability. In Africa, Comet showed its stamina again in "the wildest ride on earth" — the monsoon-swept East African Safari Rally. 94 cars started. Only 21 finished the run — two of them were Comets.

Leads the sales success parade!
Is it any surprise that Comet sales are up to almost double last year's? Comet proves what it can do. After 100,000 miles at Daytona, one of these special Comets has traveled another 31,000 and is still going strong. Then rally-equipped Comets slogged through 3,188 miles of African mud, rocks and jungle — the first to carry America's colors in the world's toughest car event. Want more reasons? Just take a look at this new Comet. Husky, racy, beautiful, and built, really built. Make tracks for a Comet at your Mercury Dealer's.

Khrushchev Is Mortal and Will Die;

What Happens to World at That Time?

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Since Nikita Khrushchev is 70 and mortal, the flashed report out of Moscow that he is dead will be the day he is dead. Reactions to the recent false report of the Soviet premier's demise have given specialists on communism some interesting insight into the effect that day will have on the red world and the East-West relations.

Here are the highlights of their analysis:

1. The disappearance of Khrushchev from the world political arena would open the way for a reconciliation between Russia and Red China.
2. In Russia, it would strengthen the position of the die-hard Stalinists and "internal Chinese" (vnutrennyia kitaitai) in the Soviet communist party.
3. In the non-communist world, Khrushchev's death and the resulting transfer of political leadership from Russia to Red China would bring "another round" of strikes, sporadic revolutions and civil wars.

With Khrushchev gone, Mao Tse-tung would have a good chance of becoming the most authoritative spokesman for world communism.

The quarrel between Russia and China has deep roots. It is based as much on race, nationalism and geography as on personal enmity between Khrushchev and Mao and the correct interpretation of Marxist-Leninist dogma.

Russia has a 4,000-mile-long vulnerable frontier with Red China. She is in possession of vast territories claimed by Mao. Moscow always has viewed with alarm the prospect of a strong China. More than 30 years ago, the legendary Mikhail Borodin, the Kremlin's top agent in China, predicted the troubles that currently rock the Red world. In a secret conversation with this writer one winter night in Moscow, Borodin said:

"China must never be permitted to become strong or independent if the Russian revolution is to survive."

China's red rulers, on their side, are proud people. They have a profound contempt for foreigners and "white colonialists." Russians included. They are dogmatic communists but they are also conscious of the antiquity of their civilization and have always regarded the Russians as barbarians.

Nevertheless, Mao does not seek an open split in the Red camp. He wants to assert his authority as Lenin's and Stalin's legitimate successor. However, he has made it plain in recent conversations with missions from France and Romania that it is Khrushchev's head he wanted as the price for communist unity.

The Soviet premier never disguised his intense hatred for his Red Chinese rival. As long ago as 1960, Khrushchev contemptuously dismissed Mao as "a man old,

In Russia?" The answer is — never.

Mao recently repaid the compliment by castigating Khrushchev as a "Bible-reading and psalm-singing buffoon" and a "laughing stock."

There is no doubt that as long as Khrushchev remains in power in Moscow and Mao in Peking the division in the Red camp will grow deeper.

Nazi Made Son Kill Jews, According to Trial Witness

BOCHUM, Germany, April 22 (AP)—A woman witness broke down in tears Tuesday as she told how the Nazi overlord of a Jewish ghetto taught his teenage son to shoot to kill by using Jewish Jews for target practice.

Mrs. Ester Landau, 58, now of Tel Aviv, Israel, was testifying in the trial of Hermann Blache, 60, charged in the killing of 10 Jews during World War II.

Harding Asks Phosphate Lease Change

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Rep. Ralph Harding, D., Idaho, introduced in Congress a bill that would double the present phosphate lease acreage that one company is permitted to hold.

Harding said his bill would increase the amount of acreage to 1,400 under the mineral act of 1920, the maximum is 10,240 acres.

K. C. Boycott Termed Success By CORE Leader

KANSAS CITY, Kans., April 22 (AP)—A one-day boycott Monday of public schools was termed a success by Carl Randolph, head of the local chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality.

Randolph estimated that 80 per cent of all Negro children and 20 per cent of all white children stayed out of school.

Officers said he fell from a tree and hit a power line.

Sheriff Lists Two Mishaps

RUPERT, April 22—The Minidoka county sheriff's office reported two accidents Monday with extensive damage to vehicles but no injuries.

At 7:15 p.m. Monday one mile east of Paul, Cash Peterman, 59, Rupert, signaled for a left turn but evidently his signal lights didn't work, officers said. A 1957 Chevrolet driven by Leroy Smith, 18, Burley, was attempting to pass the 1958 Ford driven by Peterman, and the two cars sideswiped.

New Jersey Ends Placid Primary Vote

NEWARK, N. J., April 22 (AP)—One of the most placid primary elections in recent history left New Jersey today with an uncommitted delegation to the Republican national convention and the first Negro congressional candidate ever to run on a major party ticket in the state.

The organization state of Republican delegates-at-large led by as much as 10 to 1 over three pro-Barry Goldwater candidates who were running without the Arizona senator's permission or help. Counting of returns from Tuesday's election was slowed by overloaded ballots.

New Jersey Ends Placid Primary Vote

NEWARK, N. J., April 22 (AP)—One of the most placid primary elections in recent history left New Jersey today with an uncommitted delegation to the Republican national convention and the first Negro congressional candidate ever to run on a major party ticket in the state.

The organization state of Republican delegates-at-large led by as much as 10 to 1 over three pro-Barry Goldwater candidates who were running without the Arizona senator's permission or help. Counting of returns from Tuesday's election was slowed by overloaded ballots.

Rickover Is Rocking Navy Boat Again

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 22 (AP)—The navy usually says nothing when Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover stands up and rocks the boat, but the last time apparently was too much.

A third navy admiral took exception Monday to Rickover's statement to congress that the naval academy should either reform itself as an educational institution or be abolished.

Rear Adm. Charles G. Kirkpatrick, who completed a 17-month tour as academy superintendent last Jan. 11, called the testimony "extravagant and exaggerated."

He indicated Rickover, head of the navy's nuclear program, was either not fully aware of what's been going on at his alma mater or gave it no credit for trying to keep abreast of technological changes.

Adm. David L. McDonald, chief of naval operations, and Vice Adm. John S. McCain, commander of the Atlantic fleet amphibious force, had earlier voiced sharp disagreement with various statements in Rickover's testimony.

Rickover's latest blast at the navy came in testimony before the house appropriations committee March 6. It was released publicly last Friday.

He criticized teaching methods at the academy, use of officers on the faculty, duties given midshipman officers, emphasis on sports, and other facets of academy life.

Negroes Beat Jew Students In Brooklyn

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—About 50 Negro youths, shouting anti-Semitic epithets, attacked a group of Jewish school pupils in Brooklyn Tuesday, injuring at least 15 of them, police said. Two rabbis who went to the aid of their pupils were beaten.

After calm had been restored, 10 Negro youths beat up Samuel Lipaker, 10, outside the school and fled, police said.

The first outbreak occurred during noon recess at a Hebrew grammar-high school in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section, a predominantly Negro neighborhood.

The Negro youths, boys and girls, carrying sticks, bottles, chains and switch-blade knives, began to push and hit pupils on the school grounds. The pupils, ranging in age from 9 to 12, fought back with their fists, witnesses said.

Rabbi Abraham Barnetaky, 46, took on a boy he supposed to be a leader of the Negro youths. "Two of my fingers were cut by this garbage can lid," the rabbi said.

Another teacher, Rabbi Isidore Kolodny, was punched in the abdomen during the 10-minute fight.

It ended when Leo Berkman, 43, a city building inspector, stopped his car and made a citizen's arrest of a 15-year-old Negro boy. Berkman said the youth clouted him with a belt buckle when he identified himself. The other Negroes fled upon hearing police sirens.

Rabbi Barnetaky, who had charge of 150 boys in the school yard, said the first indication of trouble came when two Hebrew students complained that several Negro boys had demanded a nickel from them, and hit them when they refused.

Last Honor Paid To John Stoller

RUPERT, April 22 — Funeral services for John Henry Stoller were held Saturday in the Congregational church at Paul by the Rev. Edwin E. Huber.

Area Pastor Moving to Idaho Falls

Elder and Mrs. Dale L. Ringering and family are moving this week to Idaho Falls where he will be pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist churches in that district.

Elder Ringering has been pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist churches in Twin Falls and Filer for the last four years.

Elder Philip Lemmon of Andrews university, Berrien Springs, Mich., will arrive in June to take over the pastorates of the Twin Falls and Filer churches. Elder Lemmon has served in the African mission field for several years. He and his wife have three children.

The Ringering family were guests of honor at a banquet at the Magic Valley Junior academy attended by members of the Twin Falls, Buhl and Filer SDA churches.

Mrs. W. H. Clark was in charge of a program of songs and readings. Mrs. L. A. Hughes and Dr. Clark presented a skit. Jack Thietten presented the Ringering family a gift of a swing rocker on behalf of the district. Dalene and Candy, daughters of the Ringering family, also were presented gifts and corsages.

Floral arrangements and candies were made by Marie Curl who was assisted in decorating arrangements by Loma Sperle, Velva Baker and Mrs. Dale Maran.

Banquet arrangements were under the direction of Ethel Hughes and Esther O'Dell. The dinner was served by Mrs. Arthur Anderst, Mrs. Thietten, Barbara Tilley and Lamora Vletz. Mrs. Sperle made the corsages.

Stick-in-Mud

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 22 (AP)—The American freighter Manhattan—carrying 70,000 tons of grain to the Soviet Union—is an old stick-in-the-mud. She can't get out of the Mississippi river into the Gulf of Mexico.

The Manhattan went aground Monday for the fifth time in a week. Six tugs worked without success to free the vessel from its latest encounter with a mud bank.

STAR'S HOME ATTACHED

Class B Schools Slate 3 Thursday Meets; Minico Invitational Is Friday

Magic Valley track, again in deference to the music department, jumps into a Thursday-Friday cycle this week with the class B schools slating three meets and the A conducting what should be a preview of the district. Hailey conducts its invitational and will host at least seven schools. A four-way meet is planned for Gooding high school track and once again an open will be held at Gooding State. The Minico invitational Friday will include all area class A schools. This will be the last week-end for class B coaches and athletes to experiment as sub-district qualifications will begin May 1.

Hailey, which has never lost its own invitational, isn't expected to do so this year. The Wolverines will be pitted against athletes from Dietrich, Carey, Richfield, Butte of Arco and perhaps another school or two. But Coach Bob Shay's team has too much depth and ability to worry excessively over the field. Since last spring the Wolverines have been defeated only in the state finals, winning district and regional along the way.

At Gooding State eyes will be focused on Cuman County speedster Ted Thornton and distance man Larry Johnson. Gooding State, Thornton, who holds the best times and distances in four events on a state level, pulled a leg muscle in the preliminaries at Boise junior college invitational last week and still may be a little gimpy. Johnson, who has state "bests" in both the mile and two mile, probably will stick with the mile this week and prepare for a shot at the state championship. He turned in a 4:36 last week-end after running 10:18 in the two-mile two weeks ago.

Gooding State coach Dave Wilding indicated last week, however, that Johnson would probably stay in the lesser distance. The four-way meet at Gooding high school will bring together Castleford, Glenns Ferry, Wendell and Hagerman. Castleford won its first team meet in years last week and has good depth. But the other three have individual strength and the battle should wage between Glenns Ferry and Wendell for the title. The Pilots, with sprinter Jim Schwager and weightman Leo McOhee, should take it.

The class A schools kinda went through the meatgrinders last week-end with Twin Falls taking a drubbing against Boise and Borah at BJC and Burley and Minico running into the combined powers of the two Billings, Mont., high schools. They should be happy to see each other Friday afternoon at the Minico invitational.

"They (Boise) looked very classy in the running events," reports Twin Falls coach Jerry Kleinkopf. "Actually, we didn't go to BJC expecting to win. I wanted the third place and we got that quite handily. Curtis Eaton (shotputter) and (miller) Terry Dodds got first for us rather easily. The 880-yard relay team victory kinda surprised us and that helped offset a couple of sub-par showings in other events."

There should be considerable experimenting done if only the seven schools from this area enter at Minico. The coaches will be looking for ways to improve team standings in various events and getting a line on what can be done for the district meet in two weeks. In the meantime, it appears Twin Falls should win with a good battle between Jerome and Burley for second.

Griffing Is Considered Future Great

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Alvin Sherman considers Glenn Griffing the quarterback of the future for the New York Giants. But he doesn't know just when. "Griffing came on fast as a rookie," the National Football league coach said Tuesday. "I think he is going to do it. I don't know exactly when. It could be that he is ready right now. I feel good about Griffing. It is just a matter of timing."

"Last year we got by with only two quarterbacks. You held your breath once in a while when Y. A. Tittle got knocked down. Most of the clubs went with only two quarterbacks because of the 37-player limit. With the new 40-player limit I believe we should look toward carrying three quarterbacks."

"It is a lot to ask for one man, young or old, to go the whole season of 14 games. We may keep young Henry Schlichtle from Wichita, our No. 6 draft pick, or we may make a deal if a worthwhile man is available."

Red Wings Top Leafs To Cop Playoff Lead

TORONTO, April 22 (AP)—Goals by Gordie Howe and Eddie Joyal and some outstanding goaltending by Terry Sawchuk gave the Detroit Red Wings a 2-1 Stanley cup playoff victory and a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven hockey series Thursday night. George Armstrong scored Toronto's only goal late in the third period with the Red Wings playing two men short after successive penalties to Bill Gadsby and Marcel Pronovost.

Howe's goal at the 11-minute mark of the first period put the Wings in front. Detroit held its slim edge until 7:50 of the third period when Joyal slipped Andre Pronovost's drop pass through goalie Johnny Bower to open up the advantage. The sixth game of the series will be played in Detroit Thursday night with a seventh, if necessary, in Toronto Saturday night.

Howe's goal came after Detroit had held off Toronto's first power play. Marcel Pronovost had been chased for tripping at 4:57. The only good shot on the Detroit goal came on Gerry Ehman's backhand which Sawchuk blocked.

Soon after Pronovost returned the Red Wings started their assault on the Maple Leaf net and had several opportunities but could not control the puck.

Then Howe and Alex Delvecchio worked the puck in on Bower, with Howe poking his own rebound behind the sprawled Toronto goaltender.

Both teams played cautiously through the opening moments. Each goalie made a dozen saves but few were hard, direct shots on the net.

Toronto had another man advantage just past the 15-minute mark when Al Langlois was sent off. Frank Mahovlich missed a clear shot on the net in a power play as the Maple Leafs caught Sawchuk wandering.

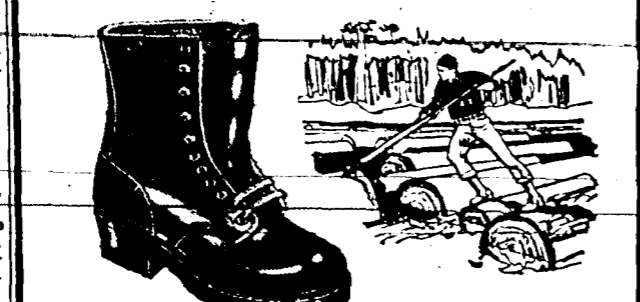

Joyal's goal took a little of the steam out of the Maple Leaf attack. Toronto had been firing on the Detroit net from all angles before Andre Pronovost and Joyal slanted in for the eventual winning marker.

Sawchuk made 33 saves, one more than Bower. But the Detroit goalie was at his best in the final session, especially while the Red Wings were short-handed in the final minute when Toronto pulled Bower for a sixth attacker.

Long, representing the Pasadena Athletic association, told newsmen at a luncheon Monday that his form was bad when he made his record loss. "I was extremely slow and did not have good position of my right leg under my body," Long said. "If I can correct these things, I should add a couple more feet this season."

VICTORY DANCE STARTED around a glum-looking Johnnie Bower in the Maple Leaf net after Detroit's Ed Joyal (21) banged in the clinching goal in Tuesday night's Stanley cup final in Toronto. Joyal's goal came on a pass from Andre Pronovost (15). Joining the dance is Bruce MacGregor (18). The goal gave the Wings a 2-1 victory and a 3-2 lead in the series. (AP wire-photo)

Roh Named Hoop Coach For Minico

RUPERT, April 22—Les Roh, former Idaho State college basketball star and head basketball coach at Rigby, has accepted the head basketball job at Minidoka county high school (Minico), announces principal Leigh Ingersoll.

Roh, a native of Idaho Falls, will replace Bill Matthews, who resigned earlier this spring and plans to give up coaching. Matthews also resigned the head football job, and was succeeded by Robert (Red) Halvorson.

Roh, about 31, was one of the key figures in Idaho States' early bid for national honors in basketball. He established the college's individual scoring record in leading the Bengals to three NCAA at large berths.

Coach Dee Andros listed lettermen at 10 of 11 positions. "The only preference given in making up the depth charts for opening day was to our lettermen," he said. "I consider every position wide open but we had to start some place and the lettermen were given first unit jobs."

"We'll be working our personnel into teams at once, and the challenge system will go into operation the first of the week."

"We have a fine nucleus to start with," he said, "with our lettermen and some outstanding football players coming up from the freshman club."

The Vandals will workout on Wednesday and Thursday and hold their first scrimmage Saturday morning.

Practice had been scheduled to start Monday but the day was spent handing out equipment.

Wagner's Homer Sends Indians Past A's by 5-3

KANSAS CITY, April 22 (AP)—Leon Wagner lined a two-run eighth inning homer completely over the "one-half pennant porch" built by Kansas City owner Charles Finley, snapping a tie and triggering Cleveland to a 5-3 victory over the A's Tuesday night. Just a half inning before Wagner's drive, right-hander Diego Segui belted a solo homer to right center at the 375-foot mark putting the A's ahead 2-1.

Segui's drive touched off three loud horns and 60 flashing lights — 30 green and 30 yellow. The lights are the latest innovation of Finley, barred by the city from shooting off fireworks.

After Wagner put the Indians ahead, Cleveland scored twice in the ninth on a single by Tito Francona, two walks and sacrifice flies by winning pitcher Jim Grant and Dick Howser.

Those turned out to be the decisive runs as the A's rallied. Bill Bryan led off with a homer and Dick Green followed with a single that chased Grant and brought on reliever Ted Abernathy.

Charley Lau followed with a pinch-hit single, and one out later, Wayne Causey walked, hitting the bases. Abernathy then got Jose Tartabull to hit back to the mound for a force at the plate and got Jim Gentile to pop up for the final out.

There have been 102 leaders of the 54-year-old race, but 58 are dead.

The club is so exclusive that only six drivers have qualified in the last three years. There have been more leaders in that period but only six were leaders for the first time.

NAMES COACH
PORTLAND, Ore., April 22 (AP)—The University of Portland Tuesday named Harley W. Lewis of Montana State university as head track coach.

First Japanese to Sign U.S. Baseball Contracts Are Assigned to Cowboys

CASA GRANDE, Ariz., April 22 (Special)—Baseball history will be made in Twin Falls this summer when two of the first three citizens of Japan ever to ink a contract in organized ball in the United States will wear the uniform of the Twin Falls in the Pioneer league. The two players are Hiroshi Takahashi, a catcher, and Tatsuhiko Tanaka, who plays second or third base. Both are 18. With Masanori

Pirates Top Cubs 8-5 in Homer Duel

CHICAGO, April 22 (AP)—Pinch hitter Gene Freese capped a homerun derby in Wrigley field Tuesday by unloading a three-run blow in the ninth inning to run blow the Pittsburgh Pirates an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

In all, nine-homers, aided by strong tailwinds, were propelled one short of a National league single game record. The Cubs smashed five of them—all solo shots, which was one shy of a major league mark for all-run scoring by a team.

Freese's smash over the left field stands came off rookie starter, lefty Fred Norman, after Dick Schofield had singled, reached second on a wild pitch, and Roberto Clemente had been tossed his first successive intentional pass.

Tigers Take 6-4 Victory Over Angels

LOS ANGELES, April 22 (AP)—Frank Ryan, Larry Sherry and Phil Regan collaborated on a six-hitter for the Detroit Tuesday night as the Tigers drew 10 walks and defeated the Los Angeles Angels 6-4.

The Angels American league home opener drew a disappointing crowd of 18,940.

Jerry Lumpe, Dick McAuliffe and Norm Cash each stroked two hits for the Tigers and Bill Bruton scored twice—coming in with the fifth and deciding run after reaching base on an error in the sixth.

Steelhead Fishing Brisk On Salmon

SALMON, April 22—Fishing for steelhead continued heavy the week-end on the Salmon River in the area of the mouth of the Middle fork.

The Idaho fish and game department, operating a checking station at the mouth of the river, reported that 43 steelhead were taken in an average of 2.2 anglers per fish.

The fishermen checked had spent an average of 3.9 days fishing with 32 per cent of them spending one day on the river, 16 per cent two days and eight per cent three days or more.

Largest fish measured was 38 inches, male and weighing 18 pounds.

The river was running clear with the roads passable but rough over the week-end.

Pinson, Rose Lead Reds to 10-5 Victory

HOUSTON, April 22 (AP)—Vada Pinson and Pete Rose led a 18-hit Cincinnati offense as the Reds ripped the Houston Colts 10-5 Tuesday night.

Pinson cracked three hits, including a triple and Rose had a double and a pair of singles to back up the nine-hit pitching of Jim O'Toole and John Taitouris. Chico Ruiz hit an inside-the-park homer for Cincinnati.

Rose, 5-foot, 10-inches, weighs 183 pounds and throws and bats right. He was the Japan all-star third baseman, but he also pitched and played first when circumstances required.

Takahashi is 5-foot, 10-inches, weighs 183 pounds and throws and bats right. He was the Japan all-star third baseman, but he also pitched and played first when circumstances required.

Takashi also has worked in most Fresno exhibitions, demonstrating a very good glove and a good range, especially at second base.

From the standpoint of defensive play, both compare well with 18-year-old American rookies in defensive play.

Just how far each will climb will be dependent in no small degree upon their ability to acquire enough conversational English to communicate freely. They have a great deal of baseball savvy and of native ability—but communication will be the key to absorbing coaching on the finer points of baseball. It is believed that the language problem will be solved at least in part during the next six or seven weeks in Fresno where Americans of Japanese ancestry have volunteered to house and tutor them.

Until departing for Twin Falls, both players will work out regularly with the Fresno varsity.

Boxer Tells Children to Stay in School

TORONTO, April 22—Jack Dempsey, who estimates he made six million to seven million dollars as heavyweight boxing champion, tells kids what his father told him: "Stay in school if you want to be successful."

Dempsey, visiting Toronto area schools to encourage students to stick to their studies, said: "If I had my life to live over, sure I'd be a fighter but I'd get my education first."

"I made money, a lot of money. But because I didn't have an education I didn't know how to handle it. Why, I had three Rolls Royces at one time. I didn't even need one but I had three."

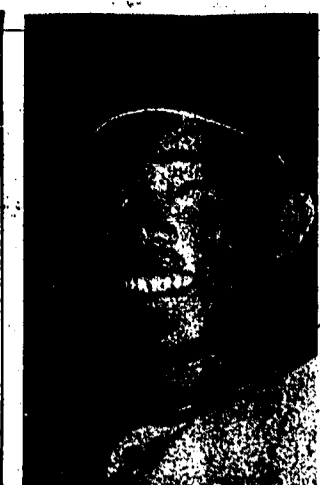

Dempsey told how his father, a schoolteacher, "told me I'd never amount to anything if I didn't get my education."

"One night I took home one million dollars to show him—10 $100,000 bills."

"The next morning he said: 'Harry—he used to call me Harry—is that real money?' I told him it was. He said: 'Well, put it in the bank, you young fool.'"

TATSUHIKO TANAKA

two of the first three Japanese to sign a U.S. baseball contract, have been assigned to the Maple Valley Cowboys by the San Francisco Giants. The two 18-year-olds will report to Twin Falls June 9 to open spring training with the all-rookie club.

Bengals Split With Weber, Retain Lead

POCAHELLO, April 22 (AP)—Idaho State split a baseball doubleheader with Weber State Tuesday and retained its slim lead in the Southern division of the Big Sky conference. The Bengals took the opener 8-7 but lost the nightcap 7-6.

A single by the Bengals' Bill Smith drove in the winning run in the bottom of the final inning in the first game, capping a three-run rally that overcame a 7-5 Weber lead.

In the second game, ISU again rallied for three runs in the last inning, but couldn't overcome Weber's advantage. John Miller's three-run homer was one shy of tying the score.

The Bengals are now 3-1 in the Southern division, with Weber in second place at 2-2. The division winner will play northern division champion Idaho in a best-of-two-of-three series May 15-16 at Missoula, Mont.

First: Weber 104 101 0—7 9 0 ISU 020 003 3—8 10 5 Lyons and Gardner; Leeland and Kuharski.

Second: Weber 112 000 3—7 8 5 ISU 011 100 3—7 9 0 Hart, Anderson (3) and Russell; Kimura and Hare. W—Hart. Homerun—ISU, Miller.

Bets Refunded On Faulty Gates

TOLEDO, O., April 22 (AP)—Raceway park bettors were refunded $14,487 Tuesday when starting gates failed for four hours in the first race—causing injury to a jockey—and a second-race entry turned up lame.

Jockey Albert Widman, Herrin, Ill., fractured his lower left leg when his mount, Butchie Boy, reared and fell backward on him at the start of the first race.

Butchie Boy and three other horses couldn't get off with the others because their gates failed to open.

Boston Red Sox Release Conley

BOSTON, April 22 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox released pitcher Gene Conley outright Tuesday night.

Red Sox manager Johnny Pesky announced the action just before Boston left Logan airport for a two-game series opening Wednesday night in Baltimore.

Pesky gave no reason for the release of the big right-hander, but it was known that Conley had been suffering a sore pitching arm.

He was a disappointment during spring training. In his last start, he lasted only one inning, gave up six runs and took himself out of the game at Oklahoma City, Okla.

Russians Rip U. S. Hoop Team 82-65

MOSCOW, April 22 (AP)—The Russian national basketball team, using a tight zone defense, defeated a somewhat disorganized United States AAU team 82-65 Tuesday in the opening game of the Americans' eight-game tour of the Soviet Union.

It was the first time an American team had lost on Soviet soil since Russian-American competition began in 1958. The U.S. players, who had been together for only two games in Poland before coming here, lacked cohesion and were unable to score on shots from the outside.

During and after the game the Americans complained about the officiating of referees Elio Luglini of Italy and Hubert Jacobs of East Germany.

Leonard Buck, Denver, said: "This is the worst officiated game I have ever seen. The fouls called on us were fouls the other team committed."

Although the game was televised, several hundred people were turned away after the Palace of Sports, which seats 18,000, was filled to capacity. Among the spectators were spacemen Pavel Popovich and Valery Bykovsky.

The Americans had the lead only once—after Lloyd Sharrar of the Akron Wingfoots scored after 48 seconds. The Russians had a 46-31 lead at half time.

The Americans were unable to penetrate the Soviet zone defense to score from short range but the Russians fouled frequently in holding them off. By the middle of the game the United States adopted a pressing defense but this didn't change the situation.

SET EXHIBITION

BALTIMORE, April 22 (AP)—The Baltimore Colts and the Detroit Lions will meet in a National Football league exhibition game in Detroit Aug. 14 at 8 p.m., the Colts announced Tuesday.

Boosters Meet

Gus Keiker will be honored Thursday morning for his work in the Twin Falls Bruin Boosters when the group conducts its weekly meeting.

The session is set for 7 a.m. Thursday in the Desert room of the Rogerson coffeshop, announces president Paul Bull.

Phillies Buy Ed Roebuck

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies bought pitcher Ed Roebuck from the Washington Senators Tuesday for the $20,000 waiver price. The right-handed relief man, formerly with the Los Angeles Dodgers, will be used in the Phil bullpen.

To make room for the 32-year-old pitcher, the Phils optioned outfielder, Alex Johnson to Arkansas in the Pacific Coast league on a 24-hour recall basis.

Hundreds Flock To See Ramos

ACCRA, Ghana, April 22 (AP)—Hundreds of Ghanaians climbed picket fences and some broke down doors in trying to get a closer look at world featherweight champion Sugar Ramos when he flew in Tuesday night to defend his title here May 2 against Ghanaian Floyd Robertson.

The Cuban-born champion planted a kiss on the cheek of a 9-year-old Ghanaian girl who presented him with a bouquet.

Chairmen and their areas include: Mrs. Lawrence Carter, east Heyburn rural; Mrs. James D. Gibson, Acequia; Mrs. Leland Whittle, Acequia rural; Mrs. Bud Irwin, Minidoka; Willard Hayward, Pioneer; Mrs. W. W. Paasch, Paul; Mrs. Jim Horner, southwest Paul rural; and Mrs. Lloyd Patterson, northwest Paul rural.

Rupert chairmen are Mrs. Ed Lankford, north Rupert; Mrs. John McBride and Mrs. Dale Klingler, Grandview addition and cemetery road; Mrs. Charles Parr, Rupert; Mrs. Robert Barlow, south Rupert; Mrs. Kay Peterson, southeast Rupert; Mrs. Thomas Smith, Rupert; Mrs. Charles Dalry, Wright addition and Vista Village; Mrs. Zelman Fewkes, downtown Rupert; Bud Zollinger, highway 30, and Ward Woolford, Scott avenue.

Mrs. McLane reported Blue Bird groups have helped staff crusade envelopes, including Mrs. Ed Engert's Poppy group, Mrs. Val Toolson's Friendly Blue Birds and Carolyn McMillon's Sunflowers.

The drive chairman reported there were 13 new cancer cases in Minidoka county last year and 13 deaths. Four cancer patients are receiving assistance from the American Cancer society at present.

Cardinal Retracts Endorsement of Birch Society

BOSTON, April 22 (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing has retracted an endorsement of the John Birch society and its founder, Robert Welch.

"In justice to myself and lest anyone would be misled by my prolonged silence, I now retract publicly that letter and especially its reference to the John Birch society," the cardinal said Monday night on radio station WNAC.

Their bull, Alphonso The Great, opened the barn door Sunday and managed to climb steep stairs into the loft. He still was there today.

New Burley Police Judge Takes Office

BURLEY, April 22—Roland E. Willis, new Burley police judge, held his first court Tuesday morning after being confirmed by the city council Monday evening.

Councilmen continued their study of street improvement east of Overland avenue and north of the railroad. Financing the project is now being studied by a local bank after the discussion at the council meeting.

A report by the bank will be heard in a council meeting after a survey of the track of land needing street improvement.

Willis was appointed police judge to fill the vacancy of Thomas D. Foster who resigned under advice of his doctor. The new judge is manager of East Park motel, and has lived in Burley for two years. He was engaged in farming for seven years in the western part of Idaho.

Local improvement district ordinance No. 12 was read for the first time by Dwaine Jensen, city clerk.

A land-filled city dump was discussed but no decision was made.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22 — Born today, you are both artistically and temperamentally inclined, and if you are to develop the one to the peak of perfection, you are going to have to out-pedal the other. Otherwise, your moods will dominate your talent and little will come of it. If you are wise, you will make a conscious effort always to examine your heart and mind for the true cause of your moods; you will probably find that the causes are not worth the trouble.

Your likes and dislikes are apt to be instantaneous, and getting you to change your mind about things is no easy matter. Here again you should learn to examine your conscience; if you cannot find a valid reason for the way you feel, you should stop and take a second look. In the case of dislikes, you may well be missing out on some excellent prospects.

An early marriage to someone who understands your complex personality would be the best thing both for your personal happiness and for the flowering of your abilities. Someone with a calming influence over your rather tempestuous nature could do a great deal to aid you professionally.

Among those born on this date are: Henry Fielding, English author; Ellen Glasgow, American author; Yehudi Menuhin, violinist, composer; Vladimir Nabokov, author.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Thursday, April 23
TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Not the day for attempting to move forward on the basis of half-made plans. Take your time; think things through!

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — A high-tension day that will take a great deal of self-control. Ignore stray remarks!

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Confidential matters may be placed in your lap for safekeeping. Prove yourself trustworthy despite an inconvenience.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — A good day to begin reforms of character and of goods. Seek the aid of co-workers in discovering just where you stand.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — An inspirational day. You should be able to make real progress even along lines entirely new to you.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today! Your personal happiness may depend on quick action — now!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Discuss your plans with others before deciding on their worth. You may be too close to the forest to see the trees!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Attempt to find a compromise between a procedure you know to be effective and a new development with promise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — A day in which you may be judged first by your appearance. See to good grooming early — and stick with it late!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — You are on your own today. Initiative on projects old and new will spell the difference between success and failure.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — You may have more competition than usual today. Hold your own and be assured of a profitable advancement.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Your best approach to all problems may be on a social plane today. Keep the mood of business light and airy.

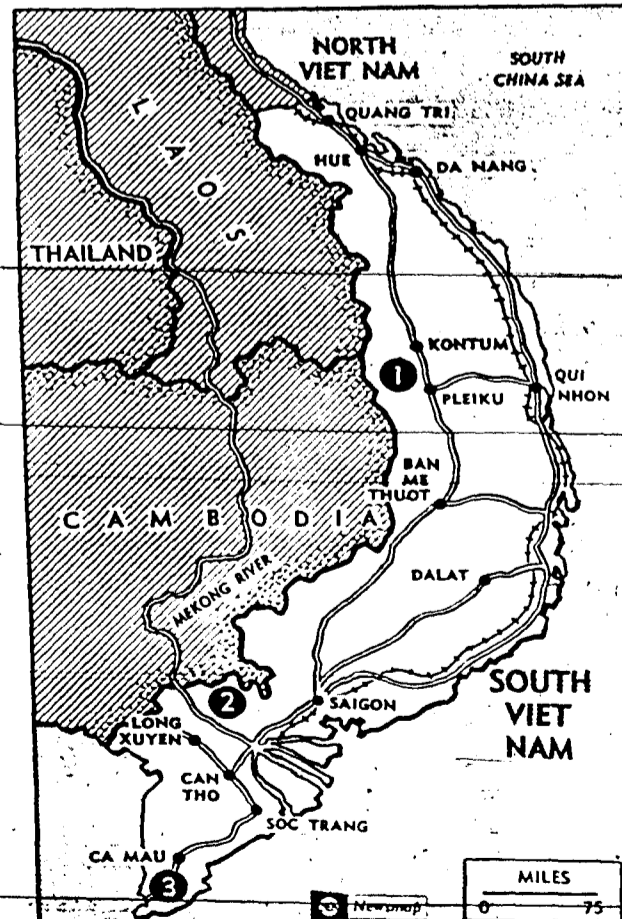

Trustee Vote Set At Glens Ferry

GLENN'S FERRY, April 22 — Two trustees for the Glens Ferry school board No. 192 will be named for three-year terms at an election May 5.

Trustees whose terms expire are Mrs. Lee Trull, Pasadena Valley, and Elbert Lawson, King Hill.

The budget approval meeting will be held May 12. Trustees Monday night canvassed the vote of the recent bond election in which bonds for the construction of a new school building were approved.

Teacher contracts for next year were approved. Teachers not renewing their contracts include William Dale Goodson, guidance teacher; Elmo Jenks, Spanish, and Mrs. L. L. Clark, fourth grade teacher.

THE OFF-AGAIN, on-again guerrilla war in South Viet Nam is now on again, with increased vigor. Concentrated enemy (Viet Cong) action has been reported in Kontum province (1) near the Cambodian-Lao border and near the Mekong river (2) at the southern Cambodian border. In the south, at Ca Mau (3), the South Vietnamese outposts are constantly under enemy attack and many of the canals which criss-cross the area have been blocked and blown apart by Viet Cong irregulars. Communist raids have been reported in areas scant miles from Saigon, the South Viet Nam capital.

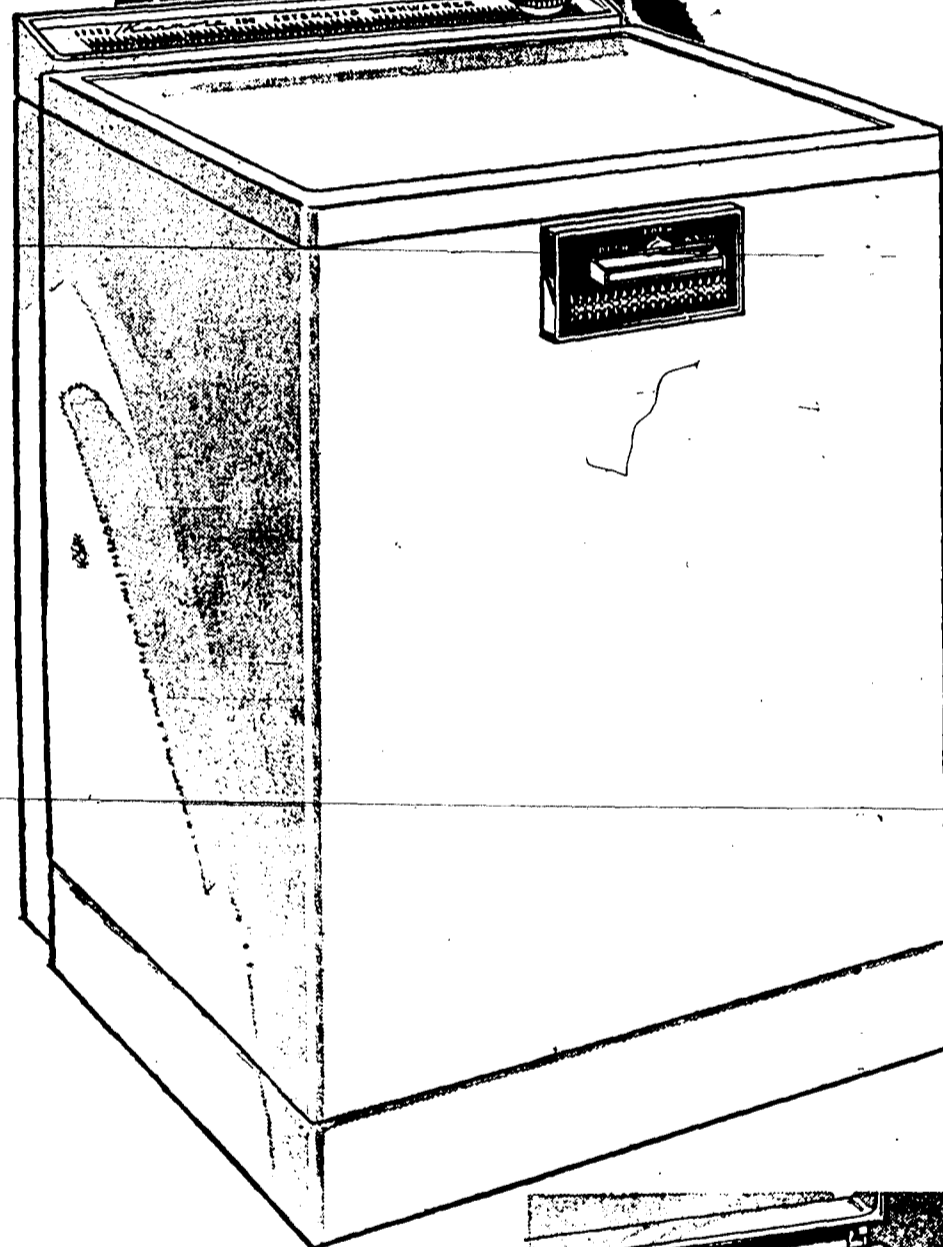

You Can Count on Us...Quality Costs No More at Sears Mother Likes Having a Maid...366 DAYS A YEAR Be a HERO!

Stop one of her biggest daily burdens...give her a famous Kenmore Portable Dishwasher

Here's Why:

- 1 Time Saving Convenience. With a Kenmore portable dishwasher the time normally spent washing dishes can be spent in leisure, doing as you please.
- 2 No Installation Necessary. A special coupler, which is a combined inlet-outlet hose, snaps easily onto most faucets and your kitchen sink is used as a drain.
- 3 Fully Portable. Large casters let you roll your dishwasher anywhere you want with ease. Also, since it's portable, you can take it with you if you should ever move.
- 4 Helps Prevent Dishpan Hands. Your hands need never touch harsh detergent dish water again. Rough, red hands are quickly forgotten with a Kenmore.
- 5 Fully Automatic. Single automatic cycle takes just 36 minutes. Your dishes receive a detergent wash, 2 flush rinses, 2 power rinses and are electrically dried, automatically.
- 6 Provides Extra Work Surface. Handy fold-back lid is finished inside and out with beautiful white baked-on porcelain enamel. Wipes clean with a damp cloth.
- 7 Loads From The Top. Top rack folds back for easy access to lower rack for loading and unloading. Stationary racks are covered with vinyl to protect your dishes.
- 8 Provides "Extra" Cabinet Space. Your Kenmore Dishwasher acts as a portable kitchen cabinet. Lets you keep dirty dishes out of sight or store clean ones.
- 9 Famous Kenmore Name. Sears Kenmore has become a trusted name in appliances. Laboratory tested to assure you the finest portable dishwasher at this price.
- 10 One Year Guarantee. Sears will repair or replace, and install without cost to you any defective parts, excluding light bulbs, impellers and porcelain-enamel surfaces for one year from sale. Porcelain-enamel guaranteed 30 days.

Holds Complete Service for 12, Including Serving Bowls and Pots and Pans!

ARCHIE TEATER, renowned artist, stands in doorway of a Prohibition days bootlegger hideaway he has sold to Carl E. Hayden, Idaho Falls. Hayden is fixing the home which is located on a 10-acre site "just as far as you can go up Malad river canyon," in Teater's words. The canyon has the reputation of being one of the shortest in the world, but one of the most rugged. Photo is an old one.

Former Bootlegger's Hideaway on Malad River Is Sold by Famed Artist

HAGERMAN, April 22 — A Prohibition days bootlegger's hideaway in the Malad river canyon has been sold by the Hagerman man who has owned it for many years.

Archie Teater, renowned artist, has sold the Malad river hideaway to Carl E. Hayden, southern Idaho newspaper man who claims Idaho Falls as "home" but wanders over big hunks of three states in search of news. Hayden has been working for several weeks to repair his new home.

Teater recalls he obtained the former hideaway for bootleggers

Auto Mishaps Are Reported In Twin Falls

Three accidents were investigated by Twin Falls police Monday afternoon and evening, with one driver being cited.

Mrs. Peggy Moffitt, 15, 220 Blue Lakes boulevard, was cited for no driver's license after the 1956 Chevrolet she was driving struck a trailer, which was being pulled by a 1955 Buick driven by Arley Conley, 55, Twin Falls, at 4:42 p.m. Monday at Second avenue west and Shoshone street west.

Police said Conley had stopped on Second avenue west for a red traffic light and the Chevrolet struck the rear of the trailer. There was about $200 damage to the Chevrolet.

At 5:25 p.m. Monday a 1947 De Soto driven by Harold F. Waggoner, 59, 610 Sparks street, was struck from behind by a 1956 Chevrolet driven by Clarence H. Pounds, Jr., 43, Kimberly, in the 100 block of Main avenue north. Police said Waggoner had stopped in the lane of traffic and Pounds had attempted to pass to the left lane of traffic. The right front end of the Chevrolet struck the left rear end of the De Soto. There was about $200 damage to the De Soto and about $100 to the Chevrolet.

Twin Falls police investigated an accident at 6:45 p.m. Monday in the 900 block of Second street east. Police said Mark L. Simmons, 14, 1001 Shoshone street north, was driving a 1958 Chevrolet stationwagon south on Second street east and another car was going north on the same street.

Thinking there was not enough room for two cars on the street, Simmons pulled off to the side of the street. When the other car passed, Simmons started to drive back into the lane of traffic, but struck a properly parked 1950 International pickup truck, owned by Stuart brothers, Twin Falls. There was about $200 damage to the stationwagon and about $75 to the pickup truck. No citations were issued.

Change Noted

A change to the army reserve enlistment and reenlistment program has been announced by Maj. Gen. P. J. Sutton, chief of the army reserve.

Personnel with prior service in any of the armed forces, with no remaining obligation, now may enlist in the army reserve for periods of one, two, three or six years, at the option of the applicant.

RECEIVE AWARDS

VIEW, April 22—Sixteen youths of the View LDS ward received Antelope priesthood individual awards for their achievements in church participation and other activities.

Subversion Responsible For Boycott

CLEVELAND, O., April 22 (AP)—Most school board members appeared unmoved by Monday's civil rights boycott of city schools, and one charged that subversives were responsible for the demonstration.

"I'm still of the opinion it's a hard core of subversives," said John J. Gallagher, vice president of the seven-member board. The United Freedom movement, which sponsored the boycott, estimated that 35,000 to 45,000 youngsters attended "freedom schools" set up to give instruction to those taking part in the boycott.

Antoine Perot, an official of the Congress of Racial Equality, said the schools had a capacity of 35,000 but this figure was "far exceeded."

Less than 10 per cent of the student body showed up at some public schools. The Cleveland school system has 150,000 pupils. Estimates of the Negro enrollment range as high as 75,000.

Airline Awaits Instructions for Crash Victims

BEIRUT, Lebanon, April 22 (AP)—Middle East Airlines said Tuesday it was still awaiting instructions from relatives of victims of the plane crash in the Persian Gulf on what to do with their bodies.

The Caravelle jetliner bound from Beirut went down in a sandstorm late Friday night minutes from its destination, Doha, Saudi Arabia. All 49 aboard, including 23 Americans, were killed. Bodies of 38 have been recovered.

A Middle East spokesman said it was believed some of the victims would be buried in Doha while bodies of other would be sent back to the United States. He said he did not yet know when they would be sent back.

Solon Says Viet Nam Fight Is 'McNamara War'

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse, D., Ore., has challenged supporters of U. S. policies in South Viet Nam to try to get congress to pass "a declaration of war."

He took the floor after five Democratic colleagues took issue with his labeling the South Viet Nam fighting as "McNamara's war."

Morse, who has demanded the withdrawal of U. S. troops from South Viet Nam, described his colleague's speeches as "largely a defense of the patriotism of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and a tribute to his brilliance as an administrator." Morse said he would second that but declared: "Not one voice has yet answered my contention that the United States, under the leadership of Defense Secretary McNamara, is fighting an illegal and unwinnable war in Viet Nam. That is why I call it McNamara's war."

Teater says the former occupants of the building had been caught in the act of circumventing the Volstead act. They were confined at the Gooding county jail and needed money for bonds. He purchased the 10-acre site for $300.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Teater sold the 10 acres something like two months ago, they laughingly report they still haven't seen any of the sale money.

It's not the new owner's fault, they hasten to add, reporting Hayden paid cash for his new property. The sale was handled through a real estate agency and although the agency has submitted three checks in payment, no money has changed hands.

The first check, dated Feb. 21, was not honored by the bank because of an improper signature. Payment was stopped on the second check, drawn in March, because of an error in the amount and the third check was drawn on the wrong branch of the bank. The Teaters are awaiting the next act in the comedy of errors.

Library Adds Adult Books To Shelves

The following books have been purchased for the adult department of the Twin Falls public library. Two fiction books head the list, "Black Cloud, White Cloud" by Ellen Douglas, and "Blood," a romance of our time, by Robert Penn Warren.

New non-fiction for adults are "I Wonder Why" by Shirley Burden; "Politics of Hysteria" by Edmund Stillman; "Socialism Re-Examined" by Norman Thomas; "Legion of Strangers" by Charles Mercer; "Sprung, the Release of Willie Calhoun" by Ken McCormick.

"Light and Sight" by Charles Gramel; "Mysterious Sky" by Lester Del Rey; "Anyone Can Live Off the Land" by James Johnson; "Cured Alcoholic" by Arthur Cain; "Machines" by Robert O'Brien; "Appointment in the Sky" by Sol Levine.

"History of the World's Classic Cars" by Richard Hough; "Making of a Public Relations Man" by John Hill; "Confessions of an Advertising Man" by David Ogilvy; "Sweet Music" by Helga Sandburg; "Stage Direction" by John Gielgud.

"Thomas Wolfe as I Knew Him" by Vardis Fisher; "Gardner, Go Home" by Ken Kraft; "Rise of the West" by William McNeill; "Treasure of the Great Reef" by Arthur C. Clarke; "Cooper's Creek" by Alan Moore; "Spawn of Evil" by Paul Wellman.

"America the Beautiful: In the Words of John F. Kennedy" by Ellen Proxmire; "Paper Tiger" by Stanley Woodward; "They Fought Alone" by John Keats; "Viet Nam Diary" by Richard Tregaskis, and "In Quest of the White God" by Pierre Honore.

T.F. Episcopal Rector Is Ill

The Rev. Warren L. Howell, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension is a patient at Magic Valley Memorial hospital. The Rev. John Tulk, Christ church, Shoshone, will celebrate holy communion at the 7 a.m. service Wednesday. The 10 a.m. service and the 7:45 p.m. service will be omitted. The parish office will be opened as usual Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

ALLSTATE Passenger Tire Guarantee
TREAD LIFE GUARANTEE AGAINST ALL FAILURES	TREAD WEAR GUARANTEE
Every ALLSTATE tire is guaranteed against all failures from road hazards or defects for the life of the original tread. If tire fails, we will — at our option — repair it without cost; or, in exchange for the tire, we will replace it charging only for tread worn (charge will be a pro-rata share of exchange price).	We guarantee tread life for the number of months designated. If tread wears out within this period, return it. In exchange, we will replace it charging the current exchange price less a set dollar allowance. *Exchange Price: regular retail price plus Federal Excise Tax less trade-in at time of return (no trade-in deduction on snow tires).
